

The Towns Around.

WELLS RIVER.

Mrs. Anna D. Leslie of Montpelier is here to spend a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Graves.

Mrs. Julia Hale of Boston who has spent the summer in Bath, N. H., was the guest of Mrs. S. J. Hutchins one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Baldwin went to Newton, Mass., Monday with their daughter, Miss Bernice Baldwin, who is to enter the Mount Ida School for Girls to study music.

Arthur Graves returned to Dartmouth College last week and Miss Nellie Lee to U. Y. M. Burlington.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Lee with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Deerth, Mr. and Mrs. Allen of Woodsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sloan of Lebanon, attended the fair at White River Junction Thursday.

Mrs. Sheldon has returned from a visit in Montpelier and Burlington.

At the regular meeting of O. E. S., Monday evening two new members were received into the order.

Mr. Hall went to Nashua, Friday, and returned Saturday, accompanied by his mother.

Arthur Whitney had green peas for dinner Sunday which were grown from seed he raised this summer.

The springs have failed which supply the homes of Mrs. Ellen Baldwin and H. T. Baldwin so they have to carry drinking water from the Baldwin block.

We have to keep our lanterns trimmed and burning now as on account of low water we have had no street lights for three weeks and the house lights go out at most any time when we least expect it.

Mrs. and Miss Belanger and Harold went to Pompanoosuc last week while Mr. Belanger took a trip to Nova Scotia.

Miss Lottie Munsell was home from Newbury Friday and Saturday.

Miss Genevieve Fellows went to Middlebury last week to attend college.

Mrs. Tilton of Chicago spent last week here with Mrs. Cochran.

Mr. Hunter, a traveling salesman, has rented the Lyons house and moved his family here. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gray have moved here from Bath, N. H., and occupy the Kittredge house on Mill street.

James Dalton returned to Boston last week having spent his vacation here. His sister, Miss Elizabeth Dalton, who teaches music in Boston, returns to her duties Sunday.

Ed. Bailey has moved to Lisbon.

Mr. Donahue has moved his family here from Woodsville, occupying a tenement in the Baldwin block.

Dumont and Russell Bailey had a vacation from school Monday afternoon it being the former's birthday anniversary.

Coughs that linger indicate chronic inflammation of the throat or lungs. Rydale's Cough Elixir is the best and safest remedy ever discovered for lingering coughs. It is harmless, contains no harmful drugs of any kind. It can be taken until the throat or lungs are healed, no danger of contracting the germs of diphtheria and guaranteed by Searles & Co.

MCINDOE FALLS.

Mrs. Dr. Moore and little son of Malden, Mass., are visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Chase.

Joe Shanty is moving this week to East Ryegate on to Clarence Bedell's farm which he has rented.

Mr. Day of Worcester, Mass., and son Prof. Edwin Day of Dartmouth were guests at John Bigham's over Sunday.

Mrs. Julia Smith spent part of last week with her brother, Alex Warden at Monroe.

Fred Colby attended the State Fair last Wednesday going from there to Woodstock to visit E. Flood.

Mrs. H. C. Ide of St. Johnsbury was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Priscilla Bedell of Monroe spent part of last week with her daughter Mrs. Merrill Bedell.

Mrs. D. C. Gray of North Montpelier who visited Mrs. H. D. Chamberlin last week went to Henry Kellogg's at East Ryegate Friday to spend a few days before returning home.

Mrs. Isaac Moore and Miss Florence McDonald have been sick the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Maynes and little daughter went to Danville Saturday to visit his parents.

Dr. Howard Coles, who has been at A. J. Finlay's the past two weeks returned to Tarrytown, N. Y., Saturday much improved in health.

There will be a harvest service at the church Sunday morning. A committee has been appointed to decorate the church for that day.

A fine harvest dinner was served at the vestry Thursday which was well patronized, the proceeds being over $20.

Mrs. Stelbuis of St. Johnsbury has been visiting at James Bishop's and M. E. Turner's.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bell and two children of Lunenburg visited at Charles McFarland's last week.

Rev. H. T. Barnard was thrown from a wagon Monday morning hurting his back quite badly.

Quite a number went to the "husking bee" at the Crane Brothers Friday evening. After the corn was husked a bountiful supper was served and the Boardway orchestra furnished music for a dance.

Mrs. Ora Bishop spent two days last week with her daughter Mrs. James McGill at St. Johnsbury.

When Trifles become Troubles.

If any person suspects that their kidneys are deranged they should take Foley's Kidney Remedy at once and not risk having Bright's disease or diabetes. Delay gives the disease a stronger foothold and you should not delay taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. W. B. Eastman.

BARNET.

Mrs. Jane Martin has returned from a visit in Lyndonville.

Harry Batchelder and Mrs. Moulton, who are visiting at Lucius Gilliland's, went through the White Mountains last week.

Francis Goodale is in Cabot.

Mrs. Sargent and daughter of Danville spent Sunday here.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. French spent Sunday at W. S. Brock's.

The auction sale of household goods at the home of the late Mrs. Warden occurred Friday.

Mrs. Sherburn Moore entertained the W. C. T. U. and ladies of Barnet, Thursday, at her home. The subject of the regular meeting was "Scientific Instruction of Temperance in School." The meeting was led by Mrs. Jennie Brock, after which a delicious tea was served to over forty people.

Rev. C. O. Day attended the Sunday school convention at Danville last week.

Mrs. Ralph Barker and children went to Brattleboro, Monday, to visit her father and mother.

Mrs. Elliott and little daughter are visiting in Lebanon.

There were 40 railroad tickets sold at the station for the State Fair one day last week.

Mrs. Leslie Gilbert and little son have returned from Chelsea.

There will be a business meeting of the Village Improvement society Thursday evening at the Town Hall. It is earnestly desired that all interested in village improvement will make an effort to be present.

Miss Christina Hall has returned to Boston to resume her studies in elocution.

Remember Charles Weeks' auction at Riverside Farm, St. Johnsbury, Oct. 7. See adv.

STANNARD.

Mrs. Luella Young has returned to her home at Alton, N. H.

H. D. Hood of Topsham recently visited relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ayer have returned to their home at Albion, after a week spent with their parents here.

Mrs. Mary Weed expects to move to her home at Greensboro Bend this week.

Mrs. Ida Rudd spent Sunday with friends at East Hardwick.

Mrs. S. King is with her daughter at Hardwick.

George Jackson is on the gain after two weeks' illness.

Mrs. Flora Hale of East Hardwick was a recent guest of Mrs. M. F. Ayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sternberg attended the State Fair last week at White River Junction.

PASSUMPSIC.

Quite a number from here took in the state fair last week.

Mrs. C. C. Bonette slipped from her wheel chair and broke her leg, Friday.

J. F. Annis returned from Sherbrooke, Tuesday.

Mrs. L. H. Thomas returned home, Saturday, from Dover, N. H.

N. J. Rash and family visited at John Bandy's, Sunday.

Mrs. Lloyd Fairbanks and children returned from Charlestown, N. H., Saturday night, where they have been visiting relatives for several weeks.

A reception was given to Dr. and Mrs. Preston at the church, Friday evening. Mrs. Preston was presented with a silver service by the church, and a silver cake basket by her Sunday school class. Cake and coffee were served for refreshments.

The water supply is getting very low and unless rain comes soon many will be without any.

Charles Warren has moved his family from St. Johnsbury to the Barker tenement in this village.

Charles Thurston is moving into Charles Felch's tenement at the upper end of the village.

The Village Improvement society will meet Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Ida Thynge. Supper will be served, to which all are invited.

Mrs. Carruth's brother, Mr. Miller, from New York, is visiting her for a few weeks.

P. A. Rash is on the sick list with a hard cold and is threatened with fever.

SUTTON.

Miss Marion, daughter of Rev. W. H. Holmes, D. D., of Evanston, Ill., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. F. W. Barker, and her uncle, F. A. Holmes, for some weeks.

Bert W. Twombly from the Union House neighborhood in Sheffield has moved to the farm where Joel S. Chesley has lived, the Charles Joy place; Joel having sold his interest in the place to

Food for thought

Food for work

Food for brain

Uneeda Biscuit

The most nourishing of all wheat foods.

5¢ In dust tight, moisture proof packages. Never sold in bulk.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

Mr. Twombly and will do lumbering at Glover the coming winter.

Mrs. W. N. Robinson, who has been visiting at her former home in Abington, Mass., for some time past has returned to her home here.

Herbert A. Burnham who has been at home through the summer vacation has returned to Middlebury College for his second year studies. Mr. Burnham has given several reading entertainments in different towns during the summer.

Mrs. Charles Aldrich spent several days at Henry Mitchell's at Sheffield recently.

It is expected that Rev. Mr. Clow will return from his vacation and be in the pulpit next Sunday. There have been no services the past three Sundays.

The regular monthly conference of the Free Baptist church is to be held Thursday at two p. m.

The next Grange social is to be at their hall Thursday evening. All are invited to spend a social evening and have a bountiful supper at a small sum.

John E. Wentworth has done the work at the blacksmith shop during the absence of Mr. Aldrich. John seems to be at home in his old place where he worked so many years and has been warmly greeted by his former customers.

Passed Examination Successfully.

James Donahue, New Britain Conn., writes; "I tried several kidney remedies, and was treated by our best physicians for diabetes, but did not improve until I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. After the second bottle I showed improvement, and five bottles cured me completely. I have since passed a rigid examination for life insurance." Foley's Kidney Remedy cures backache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble. W. B. Eastman.

PEACHAM.

A parlor meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held Friday afternoon with Mrs. Clara Bailey, 12 ladies being present. A very instructive paper was read by Mrs. Eliza Esden on the progress of temperance through the past ages and the hopeful outlook for the future. A social hour was spent and several gentlemen came in to tea.

Rev. J. K. Williams, R. B. Abbott, the Sunday school superintendent, Mrs. Clara Bailey, Mrs. Hannah Martin, Mrs. Eliza Renfrew, Harlan Renfrew, Mrs. A. H. Hebblethwaite and Alec Bailey attended the convention at Danville, Thursday and pronounced it one of the best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Williams from Scotia, N. Y., are spending two weeks at Rev. J. K. Williams'.

Mrs. Leon Story and her son Roy from Danville spent a few days here calling on friends last week.

Mrs. M. J. Blanchard and Mrs. Laura Palmer went to St. Johnsbury the first of the week. On reaching the station to return at night, Mrs. Blanchard moved quickly to escape being run over by a team and fell receiving a severe sprain so she could not stand. She was taken to Fred Harriman's where she remains at present but has gained so much it is hoped she can be moved home this week.

Mrs. Palmer stayed with her until Saturday when she came home and left her in her daughter's care.

Ned Kenerson from Boston spent two days with John H. Varnum the last of the week.

Walter N. Blanchard had the misfortune to get his right hand badly crushed in a corn cutter the first of the week.

Sim Hobart is still quite ill. Mrs. Charles Kinerson has been very ill with pneumonia the past week but is a little better. Ellen Kinerson has been quite ill the past week with tonsillitis. Mrs. Morris Taylor, who has been suffering with asthma for several weeks, is a little better.

Engene Shaw whose house on the Clark place at East Peacham was burned last winter is building a new house on the old place.

There will be a meeting of the musical association in the vestry Thursday evening.

W. W. Clifford from Conway, N. H., and H. E. Barker from Danville called on Mrs. Clifford, Saturday.

Mrs. and Miss Schofield, who have been boarding with Miss Prentiss the past month, went home Friday.

Mrs. Frances H. Varnum and Miss Jeanette Varnum left Monday for Florida where Miss Varnum is employed by the A. M. A. to teach the coming year.

The members of the Ver-Cal-Pe club will meet with Mrs. Bunker, Saturday.

Dinner will be served and the gentlemen are invited.

Remember Charles Weeks' auction at Riverside Farm, St. Johnsbury, Oct. 7. See adv.

Drop by drop the offensive discharge caused by Nasal Catarrh falls from the back of the nose into the throat, setting up an inflammation that is likely to mean Chronic Bronchitis. The most satisfactory remedy for Catarrh is Ely's Cream Balm, and the relief that follows even the first application cannot be told in words. Don't suffer a day longer from the discomfort of Nasal Catarrh. Cream Balm is sold by all druggists for 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

EAST BURKE.

The little Goss boys are gaining slowly.

Mrs. William Belden spent part of last week visiting relatives in Randolph.

Harry Mathers has moved into his house in the village.

Mrs. George Eggleston has been engaged to finish the term in the primary school, closed by the illness of Floy Gibson.

Annie Belden returned to her work in Laconia, Tuesday.

Rev. M. A. Turner had the misfortune to lose his only horse last week.

George Thurber returned to Boston, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomson, who moved to Massachusetts from here 29 years ago, are here again visiting old neighbors.

Rev. O. E. Hardy has been sick and confined to his bed since last Wednesday, but is more comfortable at present. There was no service in the Congregational church Sunday on account of his illness.

Mrs. Frank McGill is visiting relatives in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burt have closed their house and gone to Springfield, Mass., to spend the winter with their children.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Beck spent Sunday with Mrs. Beck's parents here.

There was a quiet wedding here Thursday afternoon when Miss Annie Humphrey was married by Rev. M. A. Turner to Fred Smith of Lyndon.

George Laverly is about to move to Island Pond, where he intends to open a meat market. Mr. Paquin moves to Sherbrooke, where he has a job in the new Fairbanks scale factory as blacksmith.

W. H. Jeffrey is at Waterville on business for the J. O. U. A. M.

The Ira Bennett farm was not sold at auction Friday.

Mrs. Grace Stafford and sons, Fred and Kenneth, of St. Johnsbury are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Gilson.

The Darlings are doing some extensive repairing on the old Belden house.

Allen Hunter has bought out the ice business at Lyndonville and will move there as soon as he can sell his farm and arrange affairs here.

E. R. Harvey and family took an auto trip to Barnet and back Sunday.

Leslie Carr and Miss Fleming of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday with Miss Fleming's aunt, Mrs. John Dashney.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cole of East Lyndon visited at Harley Cole's, Sunday.

Mrs. Flora Williams of Providence, R. I., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Eli Eastman.

Miss Jones of Lyndon is the new clerk at Webster's. She is boarding at Mike Sullivan's.

Miss Floy Gibson is ill again.

The Ladies' Aid society meets with Mrs. B. F. Humphrey this week, and the W. F. M. S. meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. M. A. Turner at the Methodist parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hunter of Lyndonville visited here Sunday.

Will Interest Many.

Every person should know that good health is impossible if the kidneys are deranged. Foley's Kidney Remedy will cure kidney and bladder disease in every form, and will build up and strengthen these organs so they will perform their functions properly. No danger of Bright's disease or diabetes if Foley's Kidney Remedy is taken in time. W. B. Eastman.

NEWBURY.

Sherburn L. Swasey of Concord, N. H., was in town a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey visited in West Lebanon, N. H., two or three days last week.

Miss Edith Marcy returned Saturday from a two weeks visit with friends in Topsham.

Mrs. Armstrong has been in Corinth for some time caring for a daughter who who is sick.

Mrs. Frank Page and son Hewitt of Corinth, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Fulton.

Miss Clara Barber of Concord, N. H., is spending a few days with her parents, William Barber and family.

Miss Patterson of Farmington, N. H., is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. John S. Gilman.

A large number from this village attended the state fair at White River Junction Wednesday.

The family of Warren W. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Sawyer and William Chamberlin went to New York City on an excursion early in the week.

John Smith of West Newbury has bought the Mrs. Horace Keyes house in the village for a residence, but will not occupy it at present.

Mrs. James B. Lowrie gave a tea party Wednesday and Friday evening of last week. On both occasions a large number of the village people were present.

Frank Stone and family who have spent the summer at their home near Keene, N. H., returned last Monday for the fall and winter mill work.

Foley's Orino Laxative is a new remedy, an improvement on the laxatives of former years, as it does not gripe or nauseate and is pleasant to take. It is guaranteed. W. B. Eastman.

WEST BARNET.

Miss May Brock of Niagara is visiting her aunt, Miss Josie Brock.

Mrs. James Fitzgerald of Attleboro, Mass., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzgerald for a few days last week.

Mrs. A. D. Warden and Mrs. E. S. Bailey and Mrs. Julia Carter returned Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Blaine visited friends in Cabot over Sunday.

Eight members of the Priscilla Club met with Mrs. Andrew Hastie, Thursday. The club will meet with Mrs. L. H. Thornton, Thursday, Oct. 15.

Herbert Conant of Lowell, Mass., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Conant Tuesday of last week.

James B. Stuart returned from Somerville, Mass., where he has been visiting relatives, Saturday.

Miss Elsinore Brock of St. Johnsbury was the guest of Miss Josie Brock, Thursday.

Margaret Ritchie and Roy Warden were home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Fitzgerald were the guests of friends in Cabot over Sunday.

LOWER WATERFORD.

Miss Rosie Thomas and friend of Lunenburg visited her aunt, Mrs. A. E. Blodgett, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles James of Berlin, and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Carpenter and daughter of Concord, visited at their brother's, E. R. Goss, Thursday.

Miss Emile Goss of Lyndonville is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Floyd Blodgett.

Mrs. G. W. Wilson and daughter Doris of Providence, R. I., are guests of her aunt, Mrs. Katherine Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Henderson of St. Johnsbury Center, visited friends in town Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Inez Thomas of St. Johnsbury spent part of last week with her sister, Mrs. F. A. Cutting.

GROTON.

O. F. Morrison, Horace Aldrich and Mrs. J. A. Gerald of Pawtucket, R. I., spent several days with relatives in town.

T. B. Hall and daughter, Mrs. L. S. Blanchard, returned from their visit to Boston and Worcester, Mass., Tuesday.

Mrs. William Gerald and daughter Rebecca of Barnet were in town Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. S. H. Myers returned Friday from their two weeks' vacation, attending the Baptist state convention at Ludlow on their way home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Whitehill of St. Johnsbury visited their parents last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Heath of Boston are visiting his mother, Mrs. Hulda Heath.

Dr. G. C. Cowan left Monday for Calgary, Alberta, where he will visit relatives.

Miss Grace Brooks occupied the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday evening.

Mrs. Joel Olney of Quebec, accompanied by her grandson, visited her son, George Olney, several days last week. A family gathering was held Thursday at the home of George Coruth. Those present were Mrs. Joel Olney and grandson, Miss Ida Olney of Concord, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. William Foster of Lisbon, and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Olney of Woodsville.

Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Tillotson were in town Monday on their way home to Manchester, Conn.

Franklin and Meroa Emery have been sick the past week, threatened with fever, but are somewhat better.

Charles Morrison was a visitor in Barnet, Saturday.

John L. Haley of Bethel lays claim to the title of having voted in more towns than any other person in that vicinity. He has followed the granite industry for many years and it is a well-known fact that this occupation causes men to change their residences often. Mr. Haley can remember voting in the following towns: Frankfort, Prospect, Vinal Haven, South Thomaston, St. George, Rockland and Hollowell, Maine; Hardwick, St. Johnsbury, South Ryegate, Barre and Bethel, Vermont.

When you go shopping don't simply say, "A pound of tea," because you can secure better tea, more delicious tea, if you only ask for "Salada."

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR
For children; safe, sure. No opiates

Danderine

GROWS HAIR and we can

PROVE IT!

A lady from Minnesota writes:
"As a result of using Danderine, my hair is close to five feet in length."

Beautiful Hair